

Readings, Collect and Year's Mind
Sunday 20th February, 2022
Epiphany 7

In our Year's Mind this week, we pray for Mary Crichton, Margaret Hunt, Dorothy Boyd, Ada Pretsell, Josephine Hay, Tom Jamieson, Lorna Thom, Leslie Usher, Mae Baird

We also give special prayers for Tony & Gill and family, Masami, Peter, Joan M., Delia, Nancy, Gonzalo, Jane T., Pam B., Claire A. & family, and Hadil's parents as they prepare to travel to a new life in Scotland.

The Intercessions are being led by Roddy Simson

The Collect for Epiphany 7 is:

Hear the prayers of your people, O Lord:
that we, who are weighed down by our sins,
may be delivered for the glory of your Name;
through Jesus Christ, our Lord,
who lives and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, world without end

Amen

The Old Testament Reading is Genesis 45: 3-11, 15 (Read by Liz Hare)

Joseph said to his brothers, 'I am Joseph. Is my father still alive?' But his brothers could not answer him, so dismayed were they at his presence. Then Joseph said to his brothers, 'Come closer to me.' And they came closer. He said, 'I am your brother, Joseph, whom you sold into Egypt.

And now do not be distressed, or angry with yourselves, because you sold me here; for God sent me before you to preserve life. For the famine has been in the land these two years; and there are five more years in which there will be neither ploughing nor harvest. God sent me before you to preserve for you a remnant on earth, and to keep alive for you many survivors. So it was not you who sent me here, but God; he has made me a father to Pharaoh, and lord of all his house and ruler over all the land of Egypt.

Hurry and go up to my father and say to him, “Thus says your son Joseph, God has made me lord of all Egypt; come down to me, do not delay. You shall settle in the land of Goshen, and you shall be near me, you and your children and your children’s children, as well as your flocks, your herds, and all that you have. I will provide for you there – since there are five more years of famine to come – so that you and your household, and all that you have, will not come to poverty.” And he kissed all his brothers and wept upon them; and after that his brothers talked with him.

This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm 37: 1-12, 41-42

1. Do not fret yourself because of evildoers; do not be jealous of those who do wrong.
2. For they shall soon wither like the grass, and like the green grass fade away.
3. Put your trust in the Lord and do good; dwell in the land and feed on its riches.
4. Take delight in the Lord, and he shall give you your heart’s desire.
5. Commit your way to the Lord and put your trust in him, and he will bring it to pass.
6. He will make your righteousness as clear as the light and your just dealing as the noonday.
7. Be still before the Lord and wait patiently for him.
8. Do not fret yourself over the one who prospers, the one who succeeds in evil schemes.
9. Refrain from anger, leave rage alone; do not fret yourself; it leads only to evil.
10. For evildoers shall be cut off, but those who wait upon the Lord shall possess the land.
11. In a little while the wicked shall be no more; you shall search out their place, but they will not be there.
12. But the lowly shall possess the land; they will delight in abundance of peace.
41. But the deliverance of the righteous comes from the Lord;
he is their stronghold in time of trouble.
42. The Lord will help them and rescue them; he will rescue them from the wicked and deliver them, because they seek refuge in him.

This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

The New Testament Reading is 1 Corinthians 15: 35-38, 42-50

Someone will ask, ‘How are the dead raised? With what kind of body do they come?’ Fool! What you sow does not come to life unless it dies. And as for what you sow, you do not sow the body that is to be, but a bare seed, perhaps of wheat or of some other grain. But God gives it a body as he has chosen, and to each kind of seed its own body.

So it is with the resurrection of the dead. What is sown is perishable, what is raised is imperishable. It is sown in dishonour, it is raised in glory. It is sown in weakness, it is raised in power. It is sown a physical body, it is raised a spiritual body. If there is a physical body, there is also a spiritual body.

Thus it is written, 'The first man, Adam, became a living being'; the last Adam became a life-giving spirit. But it is not the spiritual that is first, but the physical, and then the spiritual. The first man was from the earth, a man of dust; the second man is from heaven. As was the man of dust, so are those who are of the dust; and as is the man of heaven, so are those who are of heaven.

Just as we have borne the image of the man of dust, we will also bear the image of the man of heaven. What I am saying, brothers and sisters, is this: flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God, nor does the perishable inherit the imperishable.

This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

The Gospel Reading is Luke 6: 27-38

Glory to Christ our Saviour

Jesus said to his disciples, 'I say to you that listen, Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who abuse you. If anyone strikes you on the cheek, offer the other also; and from anyone who takes away your coat do not withhold even your shirt. Give to everyone who begs from you; and if anyone takes away your goods, do not ask for them again. Do to others as you would have them do to you.

If you love those who love you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners love those who love them. If you do good to those who do good to you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners do the same. If you lend to those from whom you hope to receive, what credit is that to you? Even sinners lend to sinners, to receive as much again.

But love your enemies, do good, and lend, expecting nothing in return. Your reward will be great, and you will be children of the Most High; for he is kind to the ungrateful and the wicked. Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful. Do not judge, and you will not be judged; do not condemn, and you will not be condemned.

Forgive, and you will be forgiven; give, and it will be given to you. A good measure, pressed down, shaken together, running over, will be put into your lap; for the measure you give will be the measure you get back.'

This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Post Communion Prayer

Almighty God,
you have created the heavens and the earth
and made us in your own image:
teach us to discern your hand in all your works
and your likeness in all your children;
through Jesus Christ our Lord,
who with you and the Holy Spirit
reigns supreme over all things, now and for ever.
Amen

The Hymns are from NEH,

263 All creatures of our God and King
391 King of Glory, King of Peace
393 Lead us, Heavenly Father, lead us

The Anthem is Panis Angelicus, by Saint-Saëns

Translation:

*The bread of angels becomes the bread of mortals;
the bread of heaven is given a bounded form.
O wondrous thing, the poor, the slave and the humble feed on their Lord.
Of you, threefold and one God, we ask:
Come to visit us as we worship you;
lead us on your paths to where we want to go:
to the light in which you dwell.
Amen.*
