Choral Evensong

A warm welcome to St Peter's for this service of Choral Evensong.

We welcome all to our beautiful church.

Wearing a face mask/covering in church is optional.

About Evensong

The service of Evensong was established by Archbishop Thomas Cranmer (1489-1556), and is based on the medieval monastic Office of Vespers.

Usually held near sunset and drawn almost entirely from the Bible, Evensong provides a restful, peaceful and contemplative time when we can commit ourselves to God. During the service we praise and thank God, ask God to be with those in need, and for his blessing to rest upon all who have come together in prayer. It is as if one is dropping in on a continuing evening conversation between God and his people, which began many centuries ago, and that will continue for centuries to come.

Following the Order in the Scottish Prayer Book of 1929, the congregational participation is primarily prayerful with attentive listening. The music and texts, whether sung by all or sung by the choir on behalf of all, is offered to God, lifting our prayers, meditation and praise to God.

Written by our ancestors more than four hundred years ago, much of the English language in the service may sound old-fashioned but its meaning is not out of date.

The service is in three parts:

To begin, worshippers are invited to confess their sins, and the Minister forgives them on behalf of God. They are then prepared for the story that will follow.

The second part contains the story of God's redeeming love. Beginning with a Psalm and a Bible reading, it then continues to the New Testament with the Magnificat, otherwise known as the 'Song of Mary', another reading, and the Nunc Dimittis or 'Song of Simeon'. This second section reaches its climax with the Creed - the affirmation of what Christians believe.

To finish, our prayerful response is to God who has revealed himself in history, in Jesus Christ, and in the Church.

Please stand when the choir and Minister process in to organ music. All are encouraged to join in singing the hymns and Psalm, and say any text written in Bold.

THE INVITATION TO CONFESSION

Sentences from Scripture.

O worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness:

Let the whole earth stand in awe of him.

Psalm 96: 9

OPENING HYMN

Dearly beloved,
the Scripture moveth us in sundry places to acknowledge and confess our manifold sins and wickedness; and that we should not dissemble nor cloak them before the face of Almighty God our heavenly Father; but confess them with an humble, lowly, penitent, and obedient heart;
to the end that we may obtain forgiveness of the same, by his infinite goodness and mercy.

And although we ought at all times humbly to acknowledge our sins before God;
yet ought we most chiefly so to do, when we assemble and meet together to render thanks for the great benefits that we have received at his hands, to set forth his most worthy praise, to hear his most holy word,
and to ask those things which are requisite and necessary, as well for the body as the soul.

Wherefore I pray and beseech you,
as many as are here present, to accompany me with a pure heart and humble voice unto the throne of the heavenly grace, saying with me:

(Please sit.)

THE CONFESSION

Almighty and most merciful Father,
We have erred and strayed from thy ways like lost sheep,
We have followed too much the devices and desires of our own hearts,
We have offended against thy holy laws,
We have left undone those things which we ought to have done,
And we have done those things which we ought not to have done,
And there is no health in us:
But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us miserable offenders;
Spare thou them, O God, which confess their faults,
Restore thou them that are penitent,
According to thy promises declared unto mankind in Christ Jesu our Lord:
And grant, O most merciful Father, for his sake,
That we may hereafter live a godly, righteous, and sober life,
To the glory of thy holy Name. Amen.

The congregation are invited to confess their sins.

THE ABSOLUTION

Almighty God,
the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who desireth not the death of a sinner, but rather that he may turn from his wickedness and live;
and hath given power and commandment to his Ministers, to declare and pronounce to his people, being penitent,
the Absolution and Remission of their sins:
He pardoneth and absolveth all them that truly repent and unfeignedly believe his holy Gospel.
Wherefore let us beseech him to grant us true repentance and his Holy Spirit, that those things may please him which we do at this present, and that the rest of our life hereafter may be pure and holy;
so that at the last we may come to his eternal joy;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Forgiveness is given on behalf of God for any wrongdoing is given to those present.

(Please sit after the Psalm.)

The 150 Psalms in the Bible have always been used by Christians in daily prayer. Each closes with the Gloria.

FIRST LESSON

At the end of the reading:

Here endeth the Lesson.

MAGNIFICAT

(Please remain seated.)

My soul doth magnify the Lord, and my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour.
For he hath regarded the lowliness of his hand-maiden.
For behold, from henceforth all generations shall call me blessed.
For he that is mighty hath magnified me, and holy is his Name.
And his mercy is on them that fear him, throughout all generations.

Magnificat: The Song Mary sings when she hears that she is going to bear God's Son. Luke 1: 46-55

He hath shewed strength with his arm;
he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.
He hath put down the mighty from their seat,
and hath exalted the humble and meek.
He hath filled the hungry with good things :
and the rich he hath sent empty away.
He remembering his mercy hath holpen his servant Israel, as he promised to our forefathers, Abraham and his seed for ever.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son,
and to the Holy Ghost;
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be;
world without end. Amen.

SECOND LESSON

At the end of the reading:

Here endeth the Lesson.

NUNC DIMITTIS

Lord, now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace, according to thy word.

For mine eyes have seen thy salvation

Which thou hast prepared before the face of all people

To be a light to lighten the Gentiles, and to be the glory of thy people Israel.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son,
and to the Holy Ghost;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be;
world without end. Amen.

Nunc Dimittis:
*The Song of Simeon. The prayer Simeon said when he first saw the newborn Jesus.
Luke 2: 29-32*

APOSTLES' CREED, said by All

(Please stand.)

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth:
And in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord,
Who was conceived by the holy Ghost,
Born of the Virgin Mary,
Suffered under Pontius Pilate,
Was crucified, dead, and buried:
He descended into hell.

The third day he rose again from the dead;
He ascended into heaven,
And sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
From thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost;
The holy Catholic Church;
The Communion of Saints;
The Forgiveness of sins;
The Resurrection of the body,
And the Life everlasting.
Amen.

COLLECT OF THE DAY

(The text is on the separate sheet.)

The Minister prays the week's prayer.

COLLECT FOR PEACE

O God,
from whom all holy desires,
all good counsels,
and all just works do proceed:
Give unto thy servants that peace which the world cannot give;
that both our hearts may be set to obey thy commandments, and also that by thee
we being defended from the fear of our enemies may pass our time in rest and quietness;
through the merits of Jesus Christ our Saviour.
Amen.

COLLECT FOR AID AGAINST ALL PERILS

Lighten our darkness, we beseech thee, O Lord; and by thy great mercy defend us from all perils and dangers of this night;
for the love of thy only Son,
our Saviour Jesus Christ.
Amen.
