

Privacy Notice: St Peter's, Lutton Place, Edinburgh

1. Your personal data – what is it?

Personal data relates to a living individual who can be identified from that data. Identification can be by the information alone or in conjunction with any other information in the data controller's possession or likely to come into such possession. The processing of personal data is governed by the General Data Protection Regulation 2016/679 (the "GDPR").

2. Who is responsible for the data stored?

The Church Administrator is the Data Controller and responsible for the church complying with GDPR. If you wish to change your contact details, withdraw your consent, or are unhappy with how your details are stored and used, please contact the Administrator by contacting St Peter's Church Office, 14 Lutton Place, Edinburgh EH8 9PE, or email: office@stpetersedinburgh.org. Please note that all processing of your personal data will cease, within 30 days of notification, other than where required by law or where data has already been processed and circulated.

3. Who holds your personal data and how is it managed?

The Vestry, Rector, Staff and authorised volunteers of St Peter's, Lutton Place, comply with their obligations under the GDPR by keeping personal data up to date; by storing and/or destroying it securely; by not collecting or retaining excessive amounts of data; by protecting personal data from loss, misuse, unauthorised access and disclosure; and by ensuring that appropriate technical and organisational measures are in place to protect personal data.

The Rector will use your personal data in order to provide pastoral care to you and to administer records such as the database of contact details.

The Vestry, Staff and authorised Volunteers use personal data for the following purposes: -

- To administer congregational records
- To fundraise and promote the aims of St Peter's, Lutton Place
- To manage our employees and volunteers
- To maintain our own accounts and records (including Gift Aid applications)
- To inform you of news, events, activities and services at St Peter's, Lutton Place, and in the Diocese of Edinburgh and the Scottish Episcopal Church
- To enable us to provide a voluntary service for the benefit of the public

4. What is the legal basis for holding and using your personal data?

- Explicit consent of the data subject;
This is so that we can keep you informed about news, events, activities and services and other events throughout the Scottish Episcopal Church via e-mail, telephone and text; and share any sensitive personal data with the clergy, the Vestry, Diocesan authorities and General Synod Office, as required.

- If you are an employee of the Vestry and the processing is necessary for carrying out obligations under employment, social security or social protection law, or a collective agreement
- Processing is carried out by a not-for-profit body with a political, philosophical, religious or trade union aim provided
- Processing is necessary for our legitimate interests. This means that we can process your personal data if (i) we have a genuine and legitimate reason; and (ii) are not harming any of your rights and interests

Our legitimate interests include: processing for the purposes of church administration; rotas, pastoral care, fundraising, etc.

5. Sharing your personal data

Your personal data will be treated as strictly confidential and will be shared only as set out in this section. Your personal data may be shared with members of the Vestry, Clergy, Staff and authorised volunteers of the congregation, along with the Diocesan Office and the General Synod Office, if you are appointed to a role within the congregation.

If you serve on any committee or take on any duty, rota or role within the congregation, your personal data may be shared with other members of the congregation. You will be informed if your personal data will be shared more widely.

We may also share your information or disclose it to third parties where required to comply with any court order or other legal obligation or when data is requested by government or law enforcement authorities, to enforce any agreements, or to protect the rights, property, or safety of us, members of the congregation or others.

6. How long do we keep your personal data?

We keep data in accordance with the guidance provided by the Scottish Episcopal Church.

Specifically, we retain Communicant and Adherent Roll data while it is still current and historic records are held in our archive for 6 years; Gift Aid declarations and associated paperwork for up to 7 years after the tax year to which they relate; and church registers (baptisms, marriages, funerals) permanently.

7. Your rights and your personal data

Unless subject to an exemption under the GDPR, you have the following rights with respect to your personal data: -

- The right to request a copy of your personal data which the Clergy/Data Controller of St Peter's holds about you
- The right to request that the Clergy/Data Controller of St Peter's, Lutton Place corrects any personal data if it is found to be inaccurate or out of date
- The right to request that your personal data is erased where it is no longer necessary for the Vestry, Clergy, Staff and authorised volunteers of St Peter's Lutton Place to retain such data

- The right to withdraw your consent to St Peter's holding and using your data at any time
- The right to request that the Data Controller provide you with the personal data held and where possible, to transmit that data directly to another Data Controller (known as the right to data portability), (where applicable). [This only applies where the processing is based on consent or is necessary for the performance of a contract with the data subject and in either case the Data Controller processes the data by automated means.]
- The right, where there is a dispute in relation to the accuracy or processing of your personal data, to request a restriction is placed on further processing
- The right to object to the processing of personal data (where applicable). [This only applies where processing is based on legitimate interests (or the performance of a task in the public interest/exercise of official authority); direct marketing and processing for the purposes of scientific/historical research and statistics.]
- The right to lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioner's Office

8. Further processing

If we wish to use your personal data for a new purpose, not covered by this Data Protection Notice, then we will provide you with a new notice explaining this new use prior to commencing the processing and setting out the relevant purposes and processing conditions. Where and whenever necessary, we will seek your prior consent to the new processing.

9. Contact Details

To exercise all relevant rights, queries or complaints please contact the Church Administrator or the Rector at St Peter's Church Office, 14 Lutton Place, Edinburgh, EH8 9PE, or email office@stpetersedinburgh.org.

You can contact the Information Commissioner's Office on 0303 123 1113 or via email <https://ico.org.uk/global/contact-us/email/> or at the Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire. SK9 5AF.

April 2023